

I am concerned about broadband over power lines (BPL) and the effect that it will have on the HF and low-VHF amateur radio bands. I do not believe that the intent of the FCC is to allow this type of interference to be present on amateur radio frequencies. Please review BPL exhaustively before permitting its application on a wide scale area of our great country. Ron Yinger, WA8EKE